NOTICE OF ELECTION OF TRUSTEES OF ST. PETER'S CHURCH.

Notice is hereby given to all the members of St. Peter's Catholic church, in the city of Fort Wayne, Allen county, Indiana, that on Friday, the 24th day of February, 1888, at 8 o'clock p. m., of said day, at the present church building of said congregation, on the south side of St. Martin's street, between Hanna and Warsaw streets, in said city, which church building is the usual place of worship for said members, there will be held an election of not less than three nor more than five trustees for said church to serve for one year.

Dated February 13, 1888.

REV. H. A. MESSMAN, Pastor.

POPULAR SCIENCE.

BATHS, gymnastics, and mountain climbing are prescribed by German physicians for heart disease.

IT is noted that timber that has been floated down rivers is not subject to dry-rot. The water dissolves the salts and albumen.

IT has been stated on good authority that if salt be sprinkled on the floor before putting down the carpet the buffalo bug will not harbor there. The experiment can be easily tried.

PROF. TUMAS, a European physiologist, has shown that vomiting is the result of irritation of a space in the medulla oblongata about one-fifth of an inch long and one-twelfth wide, and believes that the brains of ruminants, rodents, and other non-vomiting animals lack this "vomiting center."

TO PREVENT wooden handles and faucets from checking, put the articles in melting paraffine and heat them there to a temperature of 216 degrees F. until bubbles of air shall cease to escape from the wood. The whole is then allowed to cool to about 120 degrees F., when the wood is taken from the bath and cleansed of the adhering paraffine by rubbing with a piece of dry cloth.

UNDER the old doctrine that nothing but liquid could pass through cell walls, and by the endosmotic process, it was difficult to conceive how there could be any ground for the popular belief that hybrids occasionally spring from grafting. Yet the fact that new varieties can originate from grafting has been proved true by the experience of careful experimenters in recent years. The new discovery that the substance called protoplasm is continuous, and passes from cell to cell, as well as plant liquids, makes the explanation of graft hybrids now clear.

A FURNACE for the burning of garbage and the refuse of streets has been on trial in Chicago recently, and, it is said, with entirely satisfactory results. There are two fires built under a large iron-lined pit with a grating for a bottom, and on this grating the garbage is dumped. The top of the pit is then closed and the fires lighted. The draught is not allowed to ascend through the garbage which is being consumed, but is made to pass over the second fire before reaching the open air, and the fumes resulting from the imperfect combustion in the first chamber are arrested, and all organic matter carried by the smoke entirely consumed before it is discharged from the chimney. It is said that even in front of the furnace there is no offensive smell, and the process is declared by those interested to be an unqualified success.

The Jersey Lily has become quite famous for her beauty, and she means to keep it, too, for, hasn't she learned in the great United States to cure colds with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup?

A GUAYAQUL MOB!

Stone a Spanish Bishop's Palace and Several Persons are Killed and Wounded.

PALAMO, Feb. 14.—Much excitement has been caused in Guayqul, owing to a Spanish priest, temporarily in charge of the bishopric of Guayqul, having excommunicated the judges of the supreme court. A mob, in which many of the best known citizens of Guayaqul were prominent, stoned the bishop's palace, and then went to the residence of Dr. Nevia, the legal adviser of the episcopate.

On stones being thrown, Dr. Nevia and some friends, who with him, fired on the crowd. The police also acted similarly. Several persons were killed and wounded before the troops appeared and restored order. The government's defending the church party was the cause of the trouble. On January 24 the populace pillaged the residence of the bishop to the cry, "Death to the Priests," although the streets were being patrolled.

THE CROWN PRINCE.

SAN REMO, Feb. 14.—The German crown prince passed a restless night, but slept this morning. He is without fever and there are no bad symptoms in his throat. Yesterday he was forbidden to talk.

DUBLIN, Feb. 14.—The mayor of Cork has been convicted of the charge of assaulting a police sergeant, at a plan of the campaign meeting and sentenced to fourteen days imprisonment without hard labor.

EBERSOLD IS BOUNCED.

The Chicago Chief of Police Tenders His Resignation.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Frederick Ebersold is no longer superintendent of the Chicago police department. He retired to private life yesterday afternoon, when he sent his resignation to Mayor Roche. Hereafter he will receive a pension of $2,250 a year, one-half the amount of his salary as chief, unless he should prefer to accept a captaincy or some other subordinate position and continue in active service on the force. But that he will do this is hardly probable, although it was said last night that he had asked the mayor to give him a captaincy.

The resignation of Superintendent Ebersold was no surprise to those who were in the confidence of Mayor Roche and his political advisers, and it was, doubtless, even less of a surprise to the chief himself, for it has been understood for many months that his retirement would be demanded as soon as he became eligible as a pensioner by passing his fiftieth year.

The chief reached his fiftieth birthday about Jan. 1, and it was confidently expected that he would be requested to step down and out at that time, but it appeared that no suitable excuse presented itself to the mayor and he was allowed to remain a few weeks longer, doubtless in the hope that some plausible reason might be given for his removal.

The Snell murder on the west side last week brought matters in the police department to a crisis, and probably did much to hasten the culmination. Not only the mayor and the officials about the city hall, but the whole town, became fully aware of the inefficiency and demoralization that existed in the rank and file of the police force.

Burglaries and thieving have been of alarmingly frequent occurrence in all parts of the city prior to the Snell affair, and the policy was to suppress news of the crimes, and thus impress citizens with the appearance of protecting their lives and property.

But the Snell affair was too big to suppress, and Mayor Roche waited for no better opportunity to call for the resignation of a superintendent whom he regarded as incompetent and lacking in executive ability.

DRUNKEN REVELRY

Ends in Six Persons Being Roasted Alive.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 14.—Sunday night at Silver Brook, a party of Hungarians went to Hakelton to attend a dedication of a Polish church. All became drunk, returned home to the house of Maulick, indulged in whisky and beer and engaged in a fight. A lighted lamp was overturned and exploded and the whole room was in flames. All of them rushed wildly for the doors, which they found locked. Five of the men and a girl were roasted alive.

The house commerce committee will make a favorable report upon the bill providing for the establishment of a bureau of health in the interior department.

Lynched.

PINCKNEYVILLE, Feb. 14.—A mob entered the jail here and took Alonzo Holly (colored), who ravished a white woman at St. Johns two months ago, and hanged him to a tree.

A Gambler Suicides.

MAD LOVE

Causes a Young Man to Kill His Sweetheart and Then Take His Own Life.

BERLIN, Wis., Feb. 14.—J. W. Hacker, of Danville, Ill., shot and killed Mabel Steikes, at Belle Plaine, Iowa, last night and then killed himself. Hacker followed and was taken sick at the hotel and at Miss Steikes' request, was removed to her grandfather's house.

Last night he called her to his room and soon after the tragedy occured. It is thought she refused to marry him and in a frenzy of destruction he took her life and his own. He was nineteen and she eighteen.

MURDERED BY HER COACHMAN.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Mammouth county, N. J., has been startled by another brutal crime. Richard Kearney, a colored coachman for Mrs. W. A. Lyddy, who lives at Elberon, has probably murdered Margaret Purcell, the aged housekeeper for Mrs. Lyddy, after attempting to assault her.

Mrs. Spayth has followed her for some months, paying out over $5,000 and offering $3,000 reward, but has been unable to catch her. She had traced her to this city where it was found that she was married under an assumed name several weeks ago, but had already left.

They were of the Poland China variety and were fed on farm products, milk, slops from the house and common field corn. Respectfully,

J. W. JONES.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

How the Love Festival Used to be Observed in Days of Yore---Its Origin and Present Significence.

This is St. Valentine's day, a festival once gorgeously observed, but now only to a limited degree. Its origin may be traced back to the Romans who held great feasts to Pan and Juno during February. The legend runs as follows:

These feasts were known as the Lupercalia and during their continuance, among a great many other ceremonies, small tablets bearing the names of young women were placed in a box and drawn out by the young men, after the manner of a lottery. Each person drawing was in honor bound to be the faithful attendant of her who had fallen to his lot from that time until twelve months had rolled around and brought another Lupercalia and a new drawing, though it not unfrequently happened that long before that time the constant association thus engendered had caused this sham engagement to terminate in a real one. The principal reason for holding this matrimonial lottery during the festivities of the Lupercalia was because they were celebrated at a time of the year when, it was popularly believed, the birds selected their mates, a tradition that still attaches to St. Valentine's day. This notion is referred to by Shakespeare in his "Midsummer Night's Dream," act IV, scene I, where he makes Theseus say:

'St. Valentine's is past;
Begin these wood birds but to couple now?"

When Christianity penetrated pagan Rome, the traditions and festivities could not be entirely banished, so they became changed and modified. For the feast of Lupercalia was substituted St. Valentine's day, St. Valentine being a martyr to Christianity in the third century and renowned for his universal love and charity. The only probable reason of it all was the desire of the early Christian fathers to christianize the heathen festival of the Lupercalia by naming it and dating it for a Christian martyr.

Shakespeare again alludes to St. Valentine's day in Hamlet, where poor Ophelia sings:

"To-morrow is St. Valentine's Day,
All in the morning betime,
And I, a maid at your window,
To be your valentine."

Not much rhyme or rythm either about it. Drayton, a poet of Shakespeare's time, wrote this to his lady love:

"My lips I'll softly lay upon her heavenly cheek,
Dyed like the dawning day, as polish'd ivory sleek;
And in her ear I'll say, "Oh thou bright morning star!
'Tis I that come so far my valentine to seek.
Each little bird, this tide, doth choose her loved peer,
Which constantly abide in wedlock all the year,
As nature is their guide, so may we two be true
This year, nor change for new as turtles coupled were."

The comic and grotesque has encroached upon and almost crowded out the sentimental and artistic and St. Valentine's day bids fair to become only a fact in the history of customs of peoples—a thing of remembrance.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

TUESDAY, FEB. 14, 1888.

CONGRESSIONAL politics are quiet now.

MR. BLAINE sent a cruel valentine to the republican party.

FORT WAYNE is to be pictured in the New York Graphic shortly.

THE great republican problem—"How shall we squander the surplus."

THE late President Garfield is said to have left his family upwards of $200,000 in stocks and bonds.

FORT WAYNE seems to be attracting capital, as will be seen by the proceedings of the Business Men's exchange.

MR. BLAINE never hinted at the abolition of the internal revenue tax in his latest letter. Writing letters seems to be Mr. Blaine's weakness.

TWENTY-TWO trusts are now flourishing under the robber tariff tax. It is to maintain them the people are forced to pay $500,000 a week in excess of the requirements and needs of the government.

MR. BLAINE very nicely succumbs to the inevitable. He perceives from far off Italy that Mr. Cleveland will be re-elected president and lets himself out of the hopeless race as easily as possible. He is perfectly willing to see Messrs. Sherman, Hawly, Sheridan and Gresham wreck their hopes on the presidential beach.

THE Chicago Times is making war on the ridiculous fashion modes and proceeds to read society a sensible lesson and suggests a dress for men that will serve them in and out of the ball room. It concludes in this way: "It is absurd to call the evening dress of man rational, elegant or very becoming. The swallow-tail coat, the low-cut vest, the elephant-leg pantaloons, the expansive shirt-front, and the narrow tape white neck-tie are not beautiful, graceful nor comfortable. They are not warm enough for winter and are a little too warm for summer. They are too somber for a wedding and are quite out of place for a funeral. They are of no value when they become a little too seedy to wear to parties."

THE senate committee on education has, by a unanimous vote, instructed Senator Wilson, of Iowa, to report favorably the bill providing for the appointment of a commission of five persons, all of whom shall not be advocates of total abstinence, to investigate the alcoholic liquor traffic, its relation to revenue and taxation, and its general economic, criminal, moral and scientific aspects in connection with pauperism, crime, social vice, the public health and general welfare of the people; and also to inquire and take testimony as to the practical results of license and prohibitory legislation for the prevention of intemperance in the several states of the union. The commission can get a great deal of information in both houses of congress.

A Great Battle

Is continually going on in the human system. The demon of impure blood strives to gain victory over the constitution, to ruin health, to drag victims to the grave. A good reliable medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla is the weapon with which to defend one's self, drive the desperate enemy from the field, and restore peace and bodily health for many years. Try this peculiar medicine.

The trains were on time this morning.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL.

No Startling Sensations are Revealed, But Our Reporter Gives the News of the Day.

The Pittsburg will pay off its employes next Friday.

This country has one-half of all the railroads of the world.

W. R. Bowles, the contracting agent of the Wabash, was in the city to-day.

A new class "S" engine left the Pittsburg shops this morning. It was numbered "345."

Calvin Castle, a moulder in the Bass works, is kept at home on account of the sickness of his wife.

Mr. Frank L. Burrowes claims to have set up and run the first engine on Wabash railroad thirty-five years ago.

Frederick Koop, a moulder in the Bass foundry, is detained at home on account of the sickness of his children.

The city of Fort Wayne has six railroads and three depots. She ought to have more railroads and only one depot.

F. W. Green, the traveling passenger agent of the Wabash Western was in the city last evening and left for Toledo this morning.

If Fort Wayne had a union depot for all the railroads centering in the city, what a wonderful snap it would be for newspaper reporters.

Fred Fleischman, a moulder in the Bass foundry, had his arm burned while at work by moulten iron and is laying off this week in consequence of the injury.

The congressional bill prohibiting the sale of railroad tickets by persons not authorized by the company will, if it becomes a law, rest heavily on the ticket scalper.

A big twelve foot drive wheel which was being taken from the Bass foundry to the depot for shipment fell off the wagon this morning and it took several men some time to reload it again.

The boys in the Pittsburg car shops had considerable amusement this morning in passing around a little dead pig as a valentine. One of them had carried his pigship ten squares in order to have the fun.

Lewis Rehling, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, who was married Sunday to a young lady from Adams county, returned to work, this morning, and received the congratulations of his many friends in the works.

The fifteen private locomotive building establishments of the United States and Canada built 1,912 engines last year, while the railroad shops turned out 318. It was the largest production on record the cost of the locomotives being nearly $20,000,000.

Wm. Z. Holverstott, the genial machinist in the Pittsburg car shops, celebrated his birthday on Sunday, and the occasion was taken advantage of by his children and daughter-in-law to present him with an elegant arm chair, Mr. Holverstott has a number of friends who congratulated him over passing another mile stone in the journey of life.

Some of the mechanics in the Pittsburg shops in this city are making better wages than bank clerks. A number of the men in the machine department are earning $3, $3.50 and $4 a day, and one or two of the employes of the blacksmith department, who are not foreman either, are receiving $5 for a day of ten hours, or at the rate of fifty cents an hour.

The 200 hands employed in the cigar manufactory of Antonio, Rorg & Langsdorf, at Philadelphia, went out on a strike, because of a notice posted by the firm that the customary allowance to each employe of three cigars a day would not hereafter be allowed. A member of the firm said that owing to the active competition in the cigar trade the firm could no longer afford to give away 4,000 cigars a week.

Fred Olds and Frank Scheid, two pleasant machinists in the Pittsburg works, quit work at 9 o'clock, last evening, for the purpose of seeing "Our Jennie," at the Temple. They had fixed up in great shape, but imagine their disappointment when, reaching the Temple, to find, posted up, the notice, "No show to-night." They gazed at each other in blank amazement and were too full for utterance. They knew it wouldn't do for "Jim" to get hold of it, so they concluded not to return to the shop and with the price of the admission to the show in their pockets they went off and—well had a good time, you bet.

Among the messenger boys in the service of the first telegraph office opened in Pittsburg years ago were four known respectively as Andy, Bob, Billy and Harry. This quartet has won both fame and fortune. "Andy" Carnegie is one of the richest men in the United States, "Bob" Pitcairn is general agent and superintendent of the western division of the Pennsylvania railroad, "Billy" Moreland is city attorney of Pittsburg and "Harry" Oliver has made a fortune in steel and narrowly missed a seat in the United States senate. Evidently the messenger boys of former times were "hustlers."

The advantages of a reliable, safe and efficatious Family Medicine, is incalculable, and when such is found, the blessing is thus happily expressed.

I Exclaimed "Eureka"

I have been using Simmons Liver Regulator myself some five years or more, and my family also, and can testify from experience to its virtues. I never recommend a medicine unless I know it to be good. In a ministry of twenty-five years I have often felt the need of such a medicine and when I found it I exclaimed "Eureka."—Rev. J. P. Harper, Proprietor of the "Christian Visitor," Smithfield, N. C.

A School Institute in Madison Township.

HOAGLAND, Ind., Feb. 13, '88.

The teachers of Madison township met at school No. 4, pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by Mr. Neff, the efficient trustee.

Mr. Felts, who was expected to preside, being absent, Mr. Peters was appointed temporary chairman. On motion Clay Harrod was elected secretary.

The program included brief talks, illustrations and examples from Messrs. Peters, Kerr, Buchanan, Ruhl, the Misses Brewer, Steel, Mr. Wright, Mr. Clay Harrod, Miss Bertha McIntosh and Miss Lena Strass. There was a joint debate on the tariff and pleasing songs.

Remarks were given on "School work" by Messrs. Stout, Ulery, Morgan, Harrod and Grotrian.

Remarks on "School Government" were offered by Clark Harrod and W. F. Essig, teachers from Marion township.

Mr. Neff, the trustee, then gave a short talk, expressing his gratitude to the teachers for the interest they were taking in school work, and urging the necessity of more practical work in the school.

The institute then adjourned, to meet March 10, 1888, at school No. 7.

DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass.,

Gentlemen:—A sense of gratitude and the desire to render a service to the public impel me to make the following statements:

My college career, at New Haven, was interrupted by a severe cold which so enfeebled me that, for ten years, I had a hard struggle for life. Hemorrhage from the bronchial passages was the result of almost every fresh exposure. For years I was under treatment of the ablest practitioners without avail. At last I learned of which I used (moderately and in small doses) at the first recurrence of a cold or any chest difficulty, and from which I invariably found relief. This was over 25 years ago. With all sorts of exposure, in all sorts of climates, I have never, to this day, had any cold nor any affection of the throat or lungs which did not yield to AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL within 24 hours.

Of course I have never allowed myself to be without this remedy in all my voyages and travels. Under my own observation, it has given relief to vast numbers of persons; while in acute cases of pulmonary inflammation, such as croup and diphtheria in children, life has been preserved through its effects. I recommend its use in light but frequent doses. Properly administered, in accordance with your directions, it is in any house. I speak earnestly because I feel earnestly. I have known many cases of apparently confirmed bronchitis and cough, with loss of voice, particularly among clergymen and other public speakers, perfectly cured by this medicine. Faithfully yours,

C. EDWARDS LESTER.

That's So

Relief is certain for the despondent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmons Liver Regulator,—easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is no intoxicating beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the Liver. Take it once and and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent that Simmons Liver Regulator has. I would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."—P. M. JANNEY, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy acts has astonished the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative, that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so naturally that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the Liver; is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmons Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it."—Rev. JAS. M. ROLLINS, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

OUR GRANVILLE.

Frank J. Healy Gives His Personal Reminiscences of the Fellow.

The Cleveland Graphic-Sentinel, edited by Frank J. Healy, a former Fort Wayne newspaper man, devotes three columns to Algernon Granville, the chap who is testifying against the alleged Ohio tally sheet forgers at Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Healy traces the fellow from his infancy, and could do it, for they chummed together when Granville operated a snap grocery house in Fort Wayne. Of his career here he says: "Finally, after corraling a mammoth roll of greenbacks, Granville shook Chicago's dust from his generous sized feet and brought up in Fort Wayne. There he started with one Frank Gerrish, a fellow of the same ilk, a wholesale grocery house. A store was rented on Columbia street and Granville wrote east for goods. Soon consignments came to it though the firm paid not a cent cash. The way of it was this: The affable Mr. G. got in pretty thick with the local representatives of Bradstreet's commercial agency and induced that worthy to give him a quotation. How much, if anything, Bradstreet's man got is not known. A man in a Chicago railroad office was in the game but his name escapes the writer. Granville sold to local retail dealers, "cutting" prices of the Fort Wayne wholesalers, such as Huestis & Hamilton and A. C. Trentman, to ridiculous figures. Suspicion was excited. A firm at Cleveland tried to replevin a barrel of lard oil, but Granville beat them. Finally the young Napoleon of confidence men made too bold a move and got a big order of soap from John O'Rourke, a local manufacturer, and shipped it to his Chicago confederates, it was alleged. O'Rourke got after Granville, who skipped at night with Chief of Police Eugene B. Smith at his heels. The Fort Wayne Gazette "wrote up" the affair next morning and said that Granville probably stole away with over $5,000. The door to the wholesale that is supposed to belong to time. The once despised black ash of the swamp margins can now look out from its antique mask and sardonically grin at the dupes who pay big prices for a fraud and a pretense.

"Really, it is about time that a little old-fashioned honesty was ejected into the minds of furniture makers. It is all right to finish birch as mahogany, elm as cherry, basswood or poplar as walnut, and black ash as oak; but it should be understood that these are only styles of finish, the real wood should be known and acknowledged by manufacturer and dealer.

"It is just as reprehensible for a reputable furniture dealer to sell black ash furniture for oak as it is for a grocer to sell corn meal for ginger or to counterfeit anything else. Good, honest oak, cherry, walnut or mahogany should never be humiliated by having to stand aside for base imitations."—American Cabinet-Maker.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself and superior to all other preparations in strength, economy and medicinal merit.

The Correct Thing in Dogs.

A change in the style of dogs is imminent. The Queen has become the owner of a white collie, which is as rare as a white blackbird, and consequently the craze for collies of that immaculate hue should break out here immediately. If you cannot obtain a white collie right off, you might take an ordinary chinchilla and black dog and bleach him; or, better yet, paint him white, like those ghostly chairs which adorn fashionable drawing rooms. At all events the white collie has now the royal cachet to all American homes where high-bred canines are loved for themselves alone.—Boston Herald.

As a toilet article, Ayer's Hair Vigor stands unrivaled. It cleanses the scalp and removes dandruff, cures itching humors, restores the original color to faded and gray hair, and promotes its growth.

HANDS OFF!

Democratic Party—You may look. But you mustn't touch.

DEMOCRATIC NUGGETS.

There is no need to talk about the Democratic nomination. Cleveland is the man.—Atlanta Constitution.

Neal Dow doesn't believe the Republicans can carry New York. Neal's head is level. A majority of about 20,000 people in New York think the same way.—St. Paul Globe.

All good Democrats desire the election of Cleveland, and voting day demonstrates that multitudes of Republicans share the wish.—New York Star.

This is a free country, and the Democracy is fortunately not limited by constitutional restriction to any particular candidate.—New York Sun.

To Hon. John J. Ingalls, President pro tem. of the Senate—Esteemed and Exalted Sir: "You did not stand the racket." Many Millions.—Augusta Chronicle.

The Republicans are fairly itching for the Democrats to nominate some candidate other than Cleveland. Let them itch.—Savannah News.

Bullock vs. Halstead.

Ex-Governor Rufus B. Bullock, of Georgia, has written a letter to The New York Press, which we commend to the careful attention of the bloody shirt Republicans who are led by Editor Murat Halstead, of The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. Governor Bullock states most emphatically that the Republican party should not commit itself to the policy of congressional legislation on behalf of the colored man, whose vote is supposed to be suppressed.

As a reason for his opposition to this proposed policy, Governor Bullock says that the supposed "suppression" does not exist. He speaks for Georgia, but if Georgia is to be snatched away from Editor Halstead's statistical column, then the whole argument falls to the ground.

Now, how will Editor Halstead reply to these statements of a gentleman who is not only distinguished as a Republican, but who is on the spot and knows whereof he speaks? As a matter of fact, the statements of Governor Bullock are unanswerable, but such Republicans as Muriatic Halstead and "Bill" Chandler will continue to wave the bloody shirt and to talk about the suppression of the negro vote and the war amendments.

Candidly, we are very sorry that Governor Bullock has written this letter, for it will have a tendency to prevent a bloody shirt campaign, and this is what the Democrats need to render their assurance of victory doubly sure.—Atlanta Constitution.

Here's a List for You.

An alphabetical list of contemporaneous interest:

Cleveland, Grover.
Hill, David Bennett.
Hewitt, Abram Stevens.
Whitney, William Collins.

All Democrats, all men of force, intellect and individuality, and all men of New York, the empire state, the pivotal state, and the state whose electoral vote will decide the election of a president next November.—New York Sun.

The Time Has Come.

This is about the season of the year when Benjamin F. Butler generally writes to some acquaintance and gravely informs him that the presidency of the United States is an office of such magnitude that it should neither be sought nor declined, particularly the latter.—St. Louis Republican.

A Blaine Prediction.

When the presidential elections are over this year Mr. Blaine will feel as the blacksmith did who sat down on a piece of red hot iron: He will probably make the same remark also.—New York Herald.

A Suggestion to J. G. B., Jr.

James G. Blaine, Jr., is said to be undecided as to a name for his boy. For male infants just now the name of Grover Cleveland appears to be the most popular.—Chicago Herald.

So They Have.

The Boston Herald thinks that Bill Chandler and his backers have arranged matters so that the Democrats this year may succeed with any candidate.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Question in Order.

Which of the two humorists is it, Frank Lincoln or Bob Lincoln, who is declining a presidential nomination in advance?—Kansas City Times.

Still It's Full of Holes.

The Republicans should take notice that very energetic repairs are being made in the Sherman fences.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The March of Time.

Times have changed since 1861. It is now such men as Murat Halstead who are the real disunionists.—Atlanta Constitution.

A Matter of Courtesy.

By courtesy, Bill Chandler's southern election control scheme is called "Chandler's policy." It is a policy that is perfectly harmless.—Atlanta Constitution.

Nor Likely to Be.

Justice Lamar has been on the supreme bench of the United States for a long time now, and the constitution is not yet demolished.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Have all the Fun You Want.

That tie vote between Henry J. Mowry and Roswell P. Flower has proved a godsend to Republican journalists. It has given them a never ending subject, open to those wild and daring conjectures in which the "Silly Billy" writers rejoice. Their latest yarns are that Col. Lamont is to be run for governor, and that Mayors Hewitt, Cooper and Grace are going to be enthusiastic supporters of Hill against Cleveland. The more improbable the story, the better they like it. Their amusement is a harmless one. It makes no difference whatever to the Democrats, who regard the pigmy writers as the big blacksmith did the assault of his little wife, when he observed, "It pleases she and it won't hurt me." The occupation of concocting these fables will keep the organs out of real mischief until they hear the final and unanimous declaration of the Democracy of the Empire state for the renomination of Cleveland.—New York Star.

More Light on Sherman.

Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, is neither as old a man nor as experienced a politician as Senator Sherman, of Ohio, yet the way Kenna riddled Sherman's "me too" to Blaine's interview ought to be humiliating not only to the Ohio senator, but to his admirers. Mr. Kenna succeeded in showing that the Ohio statesman was thoroughly unscrupulous and inconsistent. He quoted from former speeches of Sherman to prove that in attacking the president's tariff views Sherman is not only insincere, but dishonest. Mr. Kenna proved, to the entire satisfaction of every unprejudiced person, that John Sherman is more of a politician than a statesman, and not a very clever politician. The West Virginia senator performed a very good day's work. The more the country understands Sherman the less danger he will be to its peace and prosperity.—Missouri Republican.

Better Ignore Him.

In what purports to be a serious political essay Murat Halstead writes that if the Democratic party obtained control of the supreme court it would nullify the war amendments.

"The cry would be raised that the old constitution was the one stay and support of the country. This would prepare the way for putting the gray upon an equality with the blue in the pension lists."

It is impossible in 1888 to believe that any sane man who can read believes what Mr. Halstead professes to believe. It is hard to be patient with him, though his intellectual condition plainly entitles him to forbearance.—Missouri Republican.

Hit the Nail That Time.

An esteemed Republican cotemporary has an editorial on the political situation, the heading of which was written, "Let us Explore." The ingenious compositor, however, probably read the article, and concluded that "Let us Explode" would be better, and so it appeared. It was decidedly the more appropriate.—Atlanta Constitution.

Wait and See.

William Walter Phelps, in a recent speech delivered at Paterson, N. J., referred to Dr. Burchard as a "half witted priest." Dr. Burchard has no bang to which he can point with pride, but there is good reason for believing that he will have the laugh on Mr. Phelps after the November elections.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Enough to Make Him.

A Philadelphia paper says: "Senator Evarts, who has been taking a careful survey of the political field, proposes very soon to make a speech in the senate upon the political issues of the approaching campaign." The ground hog had better go back into his hole.—Chicago Herald.

Sherman's Talk Boiled Down.

Mr. Sherman should not make his speeches so long. Many have not time to read them. Let him put out something brief as his policy; something like this, for instance: "The Public Money—It must and shall be squandered."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Let Him Scream.

It is rumored that southern ladies in Washington will make the new silk gown for Judge Lamar. This should induce the watchful editor of The Forum to call on Murat Halstead for another ante-diluvian scream.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Keep Your Eye on Him.

Many people still think that Dr. Burchard did some good work for the Democracy in 1884, but if they want to see the doctor eclipsed in that line let them watch Bill Chandler during the next few months.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Not Dangerous.

The only prominent disunionists in this country today are John Sherman, Bill Chandler and Editor Halstead. These disunionists make a great deal of fuss, but they are not dangerous.—Atlanta Constitution.

Should Refer to the Present.

Gen. Sherman, in writing his article on "The Grand Strategy of the War," should have said something about the grand strategy that keeps the war going on at the present time.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Prophecy.

Mr. Cleveland will be renominated by acclamation.

Blaine will find great difficulty in holding Massachusetts and the northwest.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Yes, He Shivers.

There seems to be no denying the fact that ex-Governor Bullock, of Georgia, has dropped a very large piece of ice down Editor Halstead's back.—Atlanta Constitution.

Hubbell Shown Up.

Mr. Jay Hubbell's defeat was brought about by the inherent viciousness of his Republicanism.—Atlanta Constitution.

This, with the building of the New York, Mahoning and Western, and the extension of the Toledo Southern, will make Findlay's shipping facilities A 1. The New York, Mahoning and Western road is the one that is offered to Fort Wayne if the people make an effort.

COLONEL ROBERTSON.

He Gives His Version of Blaine's Letter.

The Indianapolis News says that Lieutenant Governor Robertson came over to-day from Fort Wayne to stay until after the state committee organizes.

"What do you think of Blaine's letter?" was asked of him.

"I think that most people will take him at his word, whatever his intentions may be."

"To whose interests will Blaine's withdrawal from the presidency result?"

"I can not answer that, but if I were a candidate for the presidency I know I should begin to notice that little cloud in the sky not larger than a man's hand which means Phil Sheridan. The people of our state would like to see General Harrison nominated and there is no telling what the developments may be."

Horace Hanna will leave for California on Thursday next to locate.

POPULAR SCIENCE.

BATHS, gymnastics, and mountain climbing are prescribed by German physicians for heart disease.

It is noted that timber that has been floated down rivers is not subject to dry-rot. The water dissolves the salts and albumen.

It has been stated on good authority that if salt be sprinkled on the floor before putting down the carpet the buffalo bug will not harbor there. The experiment can be easily tried.

PROF. TUMAS, a European physiologist, has shown that vomiting is the result of irritation of a space in the medulla oblongata about one-fifth of an inch long and one-twelfth wide, and believes that the brains of ruminants, rodents, and other non-vomiting animals lack this "vomiting center."

TO PREVENT wooden handles and faucets from checking, put the articles in melting paraffine and heat them there to a temperature of 216 degrees F. until bubbles of air shall cease to escape from the wood. The whole is then allowed to cool to about 120 degrees F., when the wood is taken from the bath and cleansed of the adhering paraffine by rubbing with a piece of dry cloth.

UNDER the old doctrine that nothing but liquid could pass through cell walls, and by the endosmotic process, it was difficult to conceive how there could be any ground for the popular belief that hybrids occasionally spring from grafting. Yet the fact that new varieties can originate from grafting has been proved true by the experience of careful experimenters in recent years. The new discovery that the substance called protoplasm is continuous, and passes from cell to cell, as well as plant liquids, makes the explanation of graft hybrids now clear.

A FURNACE for the burning of garbage and the refuse of streets has been on trial in Chicago recently, and, it is said, with entirely satisfactory results. There are two fires built under a large iron-lined pit with a grating for a bottom, and on this grating the garbage is dumped. The top of the pit is then closed and the fires lighted. The draught is not allowed to ascend through the garbage which is being consumed, but is made to pass over the second fire before reaching the open air, and the fumes resulting from the imperfect combustion in the first chamber are arrested, and all organic matter carried by the smoke entirely consumed before it is discharged from the chimney. It is said that even in front of the furnace there is no offensive smell, and the process is declared by those interested to be an unqualified success.

A GUAYAQUL MOB!

Stone a Spanish Bishop's Palace and Several Persons are Killed and Wounded.

PARAMO, Feb. 14.—Much excitement has been caused in Guayqul, owing to a Spanish priest, temporarily in charge of the bishopric of Guayqul, having excommunicated the judges of the supreme court. A mob, in which many of the best known citizens of Guayaqul were prominent, stoned the bishop's palace, and then went to the residence of Dr. Nevis, the legal adviser of the episcopate.

On stones being thrown, Dr. Nevis and some friends, who with him, fired on the crowd. The police also acted similarly. Several persons were killed and wounded before the troops appeared and restored order. The government's defending the church party was the cause of the trouble. On January 24 the populace pillaged the residence of the bishop to the cry, "Death to the Priests," although the streets were being patrolled.

THE CROWN PRINCE.

SAN REMO, Feb. 14.—The German crown prince passed a restless night, but slept this morning. He is without fever and there are no bad symptoms in his throat. Yesterday he was forbidden to talk.

DUBLIN, Feb. 14.—The mayor of Cork has been convicted of the charge of assaulting a police sergeant, at a plan of the campaign meeting and sentenced to fourteen days imprisonment without hard labor.

EBERSOLD IS BOUNCED.

The Chicago Chief of Police Tenders His Resignation.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Frederick Ebersold is no longer superintendent of the Chicago police department. He retired to private life yesterday afternoon, when he sent his resignation to Mayor Roche. Hereafter he will receive a pension of $2,250 a year, one-half the amount of his salary as chief, unless he should prefer to accept a captaincy or some other subordinate position and continue in active service on the force. But that he will do this is hardly probable, although it was said last night that he had asked the mayor to give him a captaincy.

The resignation of Superintendent Ebersold was no surprise to those who were in the confidence of Mayor Roche and his political advisers, and it was, doubtless, even less of a surprise to the chief himself, for it has been understood for many months that his retirement would be demanded as soon as he became eligible as a pensioner by passing his fiftieth year.

The chief reached his fiftieth birthday about Jan. 1, and it was confidently expected that he would be requested to step down and out at that time, but it appeared that no suitable excuse presented itself to the mayor and he was allowed to remain a few weeks longer, doubtless in the hope that some plausible reason might be given for his removal.

The Snell murder on the west side last week brought matters in the police department to a crisis, and probably did much to hasten the culmination. Not only the mayor and the officials about the city hall, but the whole town, became fully aware of the inefficiency and demoralization that existed in the rank and file of the police force.

Burglaries and thieving have been of alarmingly frequent occurrence in all parts of the city prior to the Snell affair, and the policy was to suppress news of the crimes, and thus impress citizens with the appearance of protecting their lives and property.

But the Snell affair was too big to suppress, and Mayor Roche waited for no better opportunity to call for the resignation of a superintendent whom he regarded as incompetent and lacking in executive ability.

DRUNKEN REVELRY

Ends in Six Persons Being Roasted Alive.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 14.—Sunday night at Silver Brook, a party of Hungarians went to Hakelton to attend a dedication of a Polish church. All became drunk, returned home to the house of Manlick, indulged in whisky and beer and engaged in a fight. A lighted lamp was overturned and exploded and the whole room was in flames. All of them rushed wildly for the doors, which they found locked. Five of the men and a girl were roasted alive.

The house commerce committee will make a favorable report upon the bill providing for the establishment of a bureau of health in the interior department.

Last night he called her to his room and soon after the tragedy occured. It is thought she refused to marry him and in a frenzy of destruction he took her life and his own. He was nineteen and she eighteen.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

How the Love Festival Used to be Observed in Days of Yore—Its Origin and Present Significence.

This is St. Valentine's day, a festival once gorgeously observed, but now only to a limited degree. Its origin may be traced back to the Romans who held great feasts to Pan and Juno during February. The legend runs as follows:

These feasts were known as the Lupercalia and during their continuance, among a great many other ceremonies, small tablets bearing the names of young women were placed in a box and drawn out by the young men, after the manner of a lottery. Each person drawing was in honor bound to be the faithful attendant of her who had fallen to his lot from that time until twelve months had rolled around and brought another Lupercalia and a new drawing, though it not unfrequently happened that long before that time the constant association thus engendered had caused this sham engagement to terminate in a real one. The principal reason for holding this matrimonial lottery during the festivities of the Lupercalia was because they were celebrated at a time of the year when, it was popularly believed, the birds selected their mates, a tradition that still attaches to St. Valentine's day. This notion is referred to by Shakespeare in his "Midsummer Night's Dream," act IV, scene I, where he makes Theseus say:

'St. Valentine's is past:
Begin these wood birds but to couple now?'

When Christianity penetrated pagan Rome, the traditions and festivities could not be entirely banished, so they became changed and modified. For the feast of Lupercalia was substituted St. Valentine's day, St. Valentine being a martyr to Christianity in the third century and renowned for his universal love and charity. The only probable reason of it all was the desire of the early Christian fathers to christianize the heathen festival of the Lupercalia by naming it and dating it for a Christian martyr.

Shakespeare again alludes to St. Valentine's day in Hamlet, where poor Ophelia sings:

"To-morrow is St. Valentine's Day,
All in the morning betime,
And I, a maid at your window,
To be your valentine."

Not much rhyme or rythm either about it. Drayton, a poet of Shakespeare's time, wrote this to his lady love:

"My lips I'll softly lay upon her heavenly cheek,
Dyed like the dawning day, as polish'd ivory sleek;
And in her ear I'll say, "Oh thou bright morning star!
'Tis I that come so far my valentine to seek.
Each little bird, this tide, doth choose her loved peer,
Which constantly abide in wedlock all the year,
As nature is their guide, so may we two be true
This year, nor change for new as turtles coupled were."

The comic and grotesque has encroached upon and almost crowded out the sentimental and artistic and St. Valentine's day bids fair to become only a fact in the history of customs of peoples—a thing of remembrance.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

TUESDAY, FEB. 14, 1888.

CONGRESSIONAL politics are quiet now.

MR. BLAINE sent a cruel valentine to the republican party.

FORT WAYNE is to be pictured in the New York Graphic shortly.

THE great republican problem—"How shall we squander the surplus."

THE late President Garfield is said to have left his family upwards of $200,000 in stocks and bonds.

FORT WAYNE seems to be attracting capital, as will be seen by the proceedings of the Business Men's exchange.

MR. BLAINE never hinted at the abolition of the internal revenue tax in his latest letter. Writing letters seems to be Mr. Blaine's weakness.

TWENTY-TWO trusts are now flourishing under the robber tariff tax. It is to maintain them the people are forced to pay $500,000 a week in excess of the requirements and needs of the government.

MR. BLAINE very nicely succumbs to the inevitable. He perceives from far off Italy that Mr. Cleveland will be re-elected president and lets himself out of the hopeless race as easily as possible. He is perfectly willing to see Messrs. Sherman, Hawly, Sheridan and Gresham wreck their hopes on the presidential beach.

THE Chicago Times is making war on the ridiculous fashion modes and proceeds to read society a sensible lesson and suggests a dress for men that will serve them in and out of the ball room. It concludes in this way: "It is absurd to call the evening dress of man rational, elegant or very becoming. The swallow-tail coat, the low-cut vest, the elephant-leg pantaloons, the expansive shirt-front, and the narrow tape white neck-tie are not beautiful, graceful nor comfortable. They are not warm enough for winter and are a little too warm for summer. They are too somber for a wedding and are quite out of place for a funeral. They are of no value when they become a little too seedy to wear to parties."

THE senate committee on education has, by a unanimous vote, instructed Senator Wilson, of Iowa, to report favorably the bill providing for the appointment of a commission of five persons, all of whom shall not be advocates of total abstinence, to investigate the alcoholic liquor traffic, its relation to revenue and taxation, and its general economic, criminal, moral and scientific aspects in connection with pauperism, crime, social vice, the public health and general welfare of the people; and also to inquire and take testimony as to the practical results of license and prohibitory legislation for the prevention of intemperance in the several states of the union. The commission can get a great deal of information in both houses of congress.

A Great Battle

Is continually going on in the human system. The demon of impure blood strives to gain victory over the constitution, to ruin health, to drag victims to the grave. A good reliable medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla is the weapon with which to defend one's self, drive the desperate enemy from the field, and restore peace and bodily health for many years. Try this peculiar medicine.

The trains were on time this morning.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL.

No Startling Sensations are Revealed, But Our Reporter Gives the News of the Day.

The Pittsburg will pay off its employes next Friday.

This country has one-half of all the railroads of the world.

W. R. Bowles, the contracting agent of the Wabash, was in the city to-day.

A new class "S" engine left the Pittsburg shops this morning. It was numbered "345."

Calvin Castle, a moulder in the Bass works, is kept at home on account of the sickness of his wife.

Mr. Frank L. Burrowes claims to have set up and run the first engine on Wabash railroad thirty-five years ago.

Frederick Koop, a moulder in the Bass foundry, is detained at home on account of the sickness of his children.

The city of Fort Wayne has six railroads and three depots. She ought to have more railroads and only one depot.

F. W. Green, the traveling passenger agent of the Wabash Western was in the city last evening and left for Toledo this morning.

If Fort Wayne had a union depot for all the railroads centering in the city, what a wonderful snap it would be for newspaper reporters.

A road to Giddingsville to the Bash farm, just across the prairie, was surveyed the other day and will be built in a short time.

Fred Fleischman, a moulder in the Bass foundry, had his arm burned while at work by moulten iron and is laying off this week in consequence of the injury.

The congressional bill prohibiting the sale of railroad tickets by persons not authorized by the company will, if it becomes a law, rest heavily on the ticket scalper.

A big twelve foot drive wheel which was being taken from the Bass foundry to the depot for shipment fell off the wagon this morning and it took several men some time to reload it again.

The boys in the Pittsburg car shop; a had considerable amusement this morning in passing around a little dead pig as a valentine. One of them had carried his pigship ten squares in order to have the fun.

Lewis Behling, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, who was married Sunday to a young lady from Adams county, returned to work, this morning, and received the congratulations of his many friends in the works.

The fifteen private locomotive building establishments of the United States and Canada built 1,912 engines last year, while the railroad shops turned out 316. It was the largest production on record the cost of the locomotives being nearly $20,000,000.

Wm. Z. Holverstott, the genial machinist in the Pittsburg car shops, celebrated his birthday on Sunday, and the occasion was taken advantage of by his children and daughter-in-law to present him with an elegant arm chair. Mr. Holverstott has a number of friends who congratulated him over passing another mile stone in the journey of life.

Some of the mechanics in the Pittsburg shops in this city are making better wages than bank clerks. A number of the men in the machine department are earning $3, $3.50 and $4 a day, and one or two of the employes of the blacksmith department, who are not foreman either, are receiving $5 for a day of ten hours, or at the rate of fifty cents an hour.

The 200 hands employed in the cigar manufactory of Antonio, Ewg & Langendorf, at Philadelphia, went out on a strike, because of a notice posted by the firm that the customary allowance to each employe of three cigars a day would not hereafter be allowed. A member of the firm said that owing to the active competition in the cigar trade the firm could no longer afford to give away 4,000 cigars a week.

Fred Olds and Frank Scheid, two pleasant machinists in the Pittsburg works, quit work at 3 o'clock, last evening, for the purpose of seeing "Our Jennie," at the Temple. They had fixed up in great shape, but imagine their disappointment when, reaching the Temple, to find, posted up, the notice, "No show to-night." They gazed at each other in blank amazement and were too full for utterance. They knew it wouldn't do for "Jim" to get hold of it, so they concluded not to return to the shop and with the price of the admission to the show in their pockets they went off and—well had a good time, you bet.

Among the messenger boys in the service of the first telegraph office opened in Pittsburg years ago were four known respectively as Andy, Bob, Bill, and Harry. This quartet has won both fame and fortune. "Andy" Carnegie is one of the richest men in the United States, "Bob" Pitcairn is general agent and superintendent of the western division of the Pennsylvania railroad, "Billy" Moreland is city attorney of Pittsburg and "Harry" Oliver has made a fortune in steel and narrowly missed a seat in the United States senate. Evidently the messenger boys of former times were "hustlers."

The advantages of a reliable, safe and efficacious Family Medicine, is incalculable, and when such is found, the blessing is thus happily expressed.

I Exclaimed "Eureka."

I have been using Simmons Liver Regulator myself some five years or more, and my family also, and can testify from experience to its virtues. I never recommend a medicine unless I know it to be good. In a ministry of twenty-five years I have often felt the need of such a medicine and when I found it I exclaimed "Eureka."—Rev. J. P. Harper, Proprietor of the "Christian Visitor," Smithfield, N. C.

A School Institute in Madison Township.

HOAGLAND, Ind., Feb. 13, '88.

The teachers of Madison township met at school No. 4, pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by Mr. Neff, the efficient trustee.

Mr. Felts, who was expected to preside, being absent, Mr. Peters was appointed temporary chairman. On motion Clay Harrod was elected secretary.

The program included brief talks, illustrations and examples from Messrs. Peters, Kerr, Buchanan, Buhl, the Misses Brewer, Steel, Mr. Wright, Mr. Clay Harrod, Miss Bertha McIntosh and Miss Lena Straus. There was a joint debate on the tariff and pleasing songs.

Remarks were given on "School work" by Messrs. Stout, Ulery, Morgan, Harrod and Grotrian.

Remarks on "School Government" were offered by Clark Harrod and W. F. Essig, teachers from Marion township.

Mr. Neff, the trustee, then gave a short talk, expressing his gratitude to the teachers for the interest they were taking in school work, and urging the necessity of more practical work in the school.

The institute then adjourned, to meet March 10, 1888, at school No. 7.

No other spring medicine has won for itself such universal confidence as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful combination of vegetable alteratives ever offered to the public, and is acknowledged by the medical profession to be the best blood purifier.

I had a severe attack of catarrh, and became so deaf I could not hear common conversation. I suffered terribly from roaring in my head. I procured a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and in three weeks could hear as well as ever I could, and now I can say to all who are afflicted with the worst of diseases, catarrh, take one bottle of Ely's Cream Balm and be cured. It is worth $1,000 to any man, woman or child suffering from catarrh. A. E. Newman, Grayling, Mich.

Late U. S. Consul to Italy, author of "The Glory and Shame of England," "America's Advancement," etc., etc., etc., writes as follows:—

New York, August 1, 1888.

DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass.,

Gentlemen:—A sense of gratitude and the desire to render a service to the public impel me to make the following statements:

My college career, at New Haven, was interrupted by a severe cold which so enfeebled me that, for ten years, I had a hard struggle for life. Hemorrhage from the bronchial passages was the result of almost every fresh exposure. For years I was under treatment of the ablest practitioners without avail. At last I learned of which I used (moderately and in small doses) at the first recurrence of a cold or any chest difficulty, and from which I invariably found relief. This was over 25 years ago. With all sorts of exposure, in all sorts of climates, I have never, to this day, had any cold nor any affection of the throat or lungs which did not yield to AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL within 24 hours.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

Of course I have never allowed myself to be without this remedy in all my voyages and travels. Under my own observation, it has given relief to vast numbers of persons; while in acute cases of pulmonary inflammation, such as croup and diphtheria in children, life has been preserved through its effects. I recommend its use in light but frequent doses. Properly administered, in accordance with your directions, it is in any house. I speak earnestly because I feel earnestly. I have known many cases of apparently confirmed bronchitis and cough, with loss of voice, particularly among clergymen and other public speakers, perfectly cured by this medicine. Faithfully yours,

C. EDWARDS LESTER.

That's So

Relief is certain for the despondent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmons Liver Regulator,—easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is no intoxicating beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the Liver. Take it once and and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent that Simmons Liver Regulator has. I would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."—P. M. JANNEY, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy acts has astonished the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative, that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so naturally that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the Liver; is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmons Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it."—Rev. JAS. M. ROLLINS, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va.

Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Sold by druggists, 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 202 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

OUR GRANVILLE.

Frank J. Healy Gives His Personal Reminiscences of the Fellow.

The Cleveland Graphic-Sentinel, edited by Frank J. Healy, a former Fort Wayne newspaper man, devotes three columns to Algernon Granville, the chap who is testifying against the alleged Ohio tally sheet forgers at Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Healy traces the fellow from his infancy, and could do it, for they chummed together when Granville operated a snap grocery house in Fort Wayne. Of his career here he says: "Finally, after corraling a mammoth roll of greenbacks, Granville shook Chicago's dust from his generous sized feet and brought up in Fort Wayne. There he started with one Frank Gerrish, a fellow of the same ilk, a wholesale grocery house. A store was rented on Columbia street and Granville wrote east for goods. Soon consignments came to it though the firm paid not a cent cash. The way of it was this: The affable Mr. G. got in pretty thick with the local representatives of Bradstreet's commercial agency and induced that worthy to give him a quotation. How much, if anything, Bradstreet's man got is not known. A man in a Chicago railroad office was in the game but his name escapes the writer. Granville sold to local retail dealers, "cutting" prices of the Fort Wayne wholesalers, such as Huestis & Hamilton and A. C. Trentman, to ridiculous figures. Suspicion was excited. A firm at Cleveland tried to replevin a barrel of lard oil, but Granville beat them. Finally the young Napoleon of confidence men made too bold a move and got a big order of soap from John O'Rourke, a local manufacturer, and shipped it to his Chicago confederates, it was alleged. O'Rourke got after Granville, who skipped at night with Chief of Police Eugene B. Smith at his heels. The Fort Wayne Gazette "wrote up" the affair next morning and said that Granville probably stole away with over $5,000. The door to the wholesale

A BIG BLAZE!

An Extensive Paper Mill Burned a Two Hundred Men Thrown Out of Employment.

NORTH WILBRAHAM, Mass., Feb. 15. The extensive works of the Collins p per manufacturing company burned t morning. The loss will be heavy. T main building was 200 feet long by si feet wide and five stories high, w large extensions built of brick. It c tained many thousand dollars worth machinery, some of which may saved.

The works furnished employment 600 operatives and was practically t only industry in town. The controlli interest in the firm was owned [illegible] that is supposed to belong to time. The once despised black ash of the swamp margins can now look out from its antique mask and sardonically grin at the dupes who pay big prices for a fraud and a pretense.

"Really, it is about time that a little old-fashioned honesty was ejected into the minds of furniture makers. It is all right to finish birch as mahogany, elm as cherry, basswood or poplar as walnut, and black ash as oak; but it should be understood that these are only styles of finish, the real wood should be known and acknowledged by manufacturer and dealer.

"It is just as reprehensible for a reputable furniture dealer to sell black ash furniture for oak as it is for a grocer to sell corn meal for ginger or to counterfeit anything else. Good, honest oak, cherry, walnut or mahogany should never be humiliated by having to stand aside for base imitations."—American Cabinet-Maker.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself and superior to all other preparations in strength, economy and medicinal merit.

The Correct Thing in Dogs.

A change in the style of dogs is imminent. The Queen has become the owner of a white collie, which is as rare as a white blackbird, and consequently the craze for collies of that immaculate hue should break out here immediately. If you cannot obtain a white collie right off, you might take an ordinary chinchilla and black dog and bleach him; or, better yet, paint him white, like those ghostly chairs which adorn fashionable drawing rooms. At all events the white collie has now the royal cachet to all American homes where high-bred canines are loved for themselves alone.—Boston Herald.

As a toilet article, Ayer's Hair Vigor stands unrivaled. It cleanses the scalp and removes dandruff, cures itching humors, restores the original color to faded and gray hair, and promotes its growth.

HANDS OFF!

Democratic Party—You may look. But you mustn't touch.

DEMOCRATIC NUGGETS.

There is no need to talk about the Democratic nomination. Cleveland is the man.—Atlanta Constitution.

Neal Dow doesn't believe the Republicans can carry New York. Neal's head is level. A majority of about 20,000 people in New York think the same way.—St. Paul Globe.

All good Democrats desire the election of Cleveland, and voting day demonstrates that multitudes of Republicans share the wish.—New York Star.

This is a free country, and the Democracy is fortunately not limited by constitutional restriction to any particular candidate.—New York Sun.

To Hon. John J. Ingalls, President pro tem. of the Senate—Esteemed and Exalted Sir: "You did not stand the rackat." Many Millions.—Augusta Chronicle.

The Republicans are fairly itching for the Democrats to nominate some candidate other than Cleveland. Let them itch.—Savannah News.

Bullock vs. Halstead.

Ex-Governor Rufus B. Bullock, of Georgia, has written a letter to The New York Press, which we commend to the careful attention of the bloody shirt Republicans who are led by Editor Murat Halstead, of The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. Governor Bullock states most emphatically that the Republican party should not commit itself to the policy of congressional legislation on behalf of the colored man, whose vote is supposed to be suppressed.

As a reason for his opposition to this proposed policy, Governor Bullock says that the supposed "suppression" does not exist. He speaks for Georgia, but if Georgia is to be snatched away from Editor Halstead's statistical column, then the whole argument falls to the ground.

Now, how will Editor Halstead reply to these statements of a gentleman who is not only distinguished as a Republican, but who is on the spot and knows whereof he speaks? As a matter of fact, the statements of Governor Bullock are unanswerable, but such Republicans as Murtatic Halstead and "Bill" Chandler will continue to wave the bloody shirt and to talk about the suppression of the negro vote and the war amendments.

Candidly, we are very sorry that Governor Bullock has written this letter, for it will have a tendency to prevent a bloody shirt campaign, and this is what the Democrats need to render their assurance of victory doubly sure.—Atlanta Constitution.

Here's a List for You.

An alphabetical list of contemporaneous interest:

Cleveland, Grover.
Hill, David Bennett.
Hewitt, Abram Stevens.
Whitney, William Collins.

All Democrats, all men of force, intellect and individuality, and all men of New York, the empire state, the pivotal state, and the state whose electoral vote will decide the election of a president next November.—New York Sun.

The Time Has Come.

This is about the season of the year when Benjamin F. Butler generally writes to some acquaintance and gravely informs him that the presidency of the United States is an office of such magnitude that it should neither be sought nor declined, particularly the latter.—St. Louis Republican.

A Blaine Prediction.

When the presidential elections are over this year Mr. Blaine will feel as the blacksmith did who sat down on a piece of red hot iron: He will probably make the same remark also.—New York Herald.

A Suggestion to J. G. B., Jr.

James G. Blaine, Jr., is said to be undecided as to a name for his boy. For male infants just now the name of Grover Cleveland appears to be the most popular.—Chicago Herald.

So They Have.

The Boston Herald thinks that Bill Chandler and his backers have arranged matters so that the Democrats this year may succeed with any candidate.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Question in Order.

Which of the two humorists is it, Frank Lincoln or Bob Lincoln, who is declining a presidential nomination in advance?—Kansas City Times.

Still It's Full of Holes.

The Republicans should take notice that very energetic repairs are being made in the Sherman fences.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The March of Time.

Times have changed since 1861. It is now such men as Murat Halstead who are the real disunionists.—Atlanta Constitution.

A Matter of Courtesy.

By courtesy, Bill Chandler's southern election control scheme is called "Chandler's policy." It is a policy that is perfectly harmless.—Atlanta Constitution.

Nor Likely to Do.

Justice Lamar has been on the supreme bench of the United States for a long time now, and the constitution is not yet demolished.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Have all the Fun You Want.

That tie vote between Henry J. Mowry and Roswell P. Flower has proved a godsend to Republican journalists. It has given them a never ending subject, open to those wild and daring conjectures in which the "Silly Billy" writers rejoice. Their latest yarns are that Col. Lamont is to be run for governor, and that Mayors Hewitt, Cooper and Grace are going to be enthusiastic supporters of Hill against Cleveland. The more improbable the story, the better they like it. Their amusement is a harmless one. It makes no difference whatever to the Democrats, who regard the pigmy writers as the big blacksmith did the assault of his little wife, when he observed, "It pleases she and it won't hurt me." The occupation of concocting these fables will keep the organs out of real mischief until they hear the final and unanimous declaration of the Democracy of the Empire state for the renomination of Cleveland.—New York Star.

More Light on Sherman.

Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, is neither as old a man nor as experienced a politician as Senator Sherman, of Ohio, yet the way Kenna riddled Sherman's "me too" to Blaine's interview ought to be humiliating not only to the Ohio senator, but to his admirers. Mr. Kenna succeeded in showing that the Ohio statesman was thoroughly unscrupulous and inconsistent. He quoted from former speeches of Sherman to prove that in attacking the president's tariff views Sherman is not only insincere, but dishonest. Mr. Kenna proved, to the entire satisfaction of every unprejudiced person, that John Sherman is more of a politician than a statesman, and not a very clever politician. The West Virginia senator performed a very good day's work. The more the country understands Sherman the less danger he will be to its peace and prosperity.—Missouri Republican.

Better Ignore Him.

In what purports to be a serious political essay Murat Halstead writes that if the Democratic party obtained control of the supreme court it would nullify the war amendments.

"The cry would be raised that the old constitution was the one stay and support of the country. This would prepare the way for putting the gray upon an equality with the blue in the pension lists."

It is impossible in 1888 to believe that any sane man who can read believes what Mr. Halstead professes to believe. It is hard to be patient with him, though his intellectual condition plainly entitles him to forbearance.—Missouri Republican.

Hit the Nail That Time.

An esteemed Republican cotemporary has an editorial on the political situation, the heading of which was written, "Let us Explore." The ingenious compositor, however, probably read the article, and concluded that "Let us Explode" would be better, and so it appeared. It was decidedly the more appropriate.—Atlanta Constitution.

Wait and See.

William Walter Phelps, in a recent speech delivered at Paterson, N. J., referred to Dr. Burchard as a "half witted priest." Dr. Burchard has no bang to which he can point with pride, but there is good reason for believing that he will have the laugh on Mr. Phelps after the November elections.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Enough to Make Him.

A Philadelphia paper says: "Senator Evarts, who has been taking a careful survey of the political field, proposes very soon to make a speech in the senate upon the political issues of the approaching campaign." The ground hog had better go back into his hole.—Chicago Herald.

Sherman's Talk Boiled Down.

Mr. Sherman should not make his speeches so long. Many have not time to read them. Let him put out something brief as his policy; something like this, for instance: "The Public Money—It must and shall be squandered."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Let Him Scream.

It is rumored that southern ladies in Washington will make the new silk gown for Judge Lamar. This should induce the watchful editor of The Forum to call on Murat Halstead for another ante-diluvian scream.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Keep Your Eye on Him.

Many people still think that Dr. Burchard did some good work for the Democracy in 1884, but if they want to see the doctor eclipsed in that line let them watch Bill Chandler during the next few months.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Not Dangerous.

The only prominent disunionists in this country today are John Sherman, Bill Chandler and Editor Halstead. These disunionists make a great deal of fuss, but they are not dangerous.—Atlanta Constitution.

Should Refer to the Present.

Gen. Sherman, in writing his article on "The Grand Strategy of the War," should have said something about the grand strategy that keeps the war going on at the present time.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Prophesy.

Mr. Cleveland will be renominated by acclamation.

Blaine will find great difficulty in holding Massachusetts and the northwest.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Yes, He Shivers.

There seems to be no denying the fact that ex-Governor Bullock, of Georgia, has dropped a very large piece of ice down Editor Halstead's back.—Atlanta Constitution.

Hubbell Shown Up.

Mr. Jay Hubbell's defeat was brought about by the inherent viciousness of his Republicanism.—Atlanta Constitution.

The railroad men present were well pleased with the result, and the device will in all probability be adopted by the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan.

The licensed liquor dealers publish a card saying: "Resolved, To close our places of business at 12 o'clock p. m., or midnight, standard time, to 12 o'clock, noon, Sunday." The law says they shall close all day Sunday and at 12 o'clock each night, but then it is nothing for the liquor dealers to set aside the laws and statutes when they conflict with their business.

At the adjournment of the land convention at Findlay, Ohio, Thursday night the citizens of that place, including the syndicates interested, went to work with a will and raised $25,000 for paying for the right-of-way for the Nickel Plate and the C., H. and D. roads; securing the C., H. and D. makes the contemplated Belt freight line a fact and the city a certainty, as the right of way has been all secured. This, with the building of the New York, Mahoning and Western, and the extension of the Toledo Southern, will make Findlay's shipping facilities A 1. The New York, Mahoning and Western road is the one that is offered to Fort Wayne if the people make an effort.

BUSINESS MEN'S EXCHANGE

A Lively Meeting Held Last Night---A Big Rolling Mill Likely to Come to Fort Wayne

Mr. G. W. Seavy presided at a meeting of the Business Men's exchange last night.

Mr. O. A. Storm, of Jackson, Mich., wrote the exchange for information about locating an extensive repair shop in this city. The secretary was instructed to give him encouragement.

Mr. Seavy announced that there was a very good prospect of the New Castle Rolling mills being removed to this city. The president, who is a brother-in-law of Mr. John Carver, of this city, will come to Fort Wayne in a day or two and the exchange will entertain him

Vice President Seavy appointed the following standing committees:

On Gravel Roads—Frank Alderman, F. W. Meyer, Alex Lafferty, Louis Centlivre and D. N. Foster.

On Natural Gas—Samuel M. Foster, M. V. B. Spencer and P. A. Randall.

On Printing—J. B. Monning, A. J. Moynihan and W. D. Page.

On Rooms—Fred Eckart, H. C. Winch and Christ Schlatter.

On Railroads and Shipping—C. S. Bash, John Peters and Geo. E. Bursley.

Executive Committee—Fred Beach, G. W. Pixley and Geo. DeWald.

A statistical blank from W. A. Peck will be filled out. It details the business and manufacturing interests of Fort Wayne for the state reports.

The exchange voted warm thanks to Congressman White for public documents.

The report of Financial Secretary Monning was approved and he was complimented.

The gravel road question was referred to the committee named above.

Representatives of the New York Graphic were present and said the city was to be illustrated and written up in that paper shortly. The advertising committee will subscribe for a number of copies.

Mr. Spencer said $300 was needed to finish the well on the Peltier farm and asked the exchange to assist it raising it. He predicted that the gas well out there would be a success.

COLONEL ROBERTSON.

He Gives His Version of Blaine's Letter.

The Indianapolis News says that Lieutenant Governor Robertson came over to-day from Fort Wayne to stay until after the state committee organizes.

"What do you think of Blaine's letter?" was asked of him.

"I think that most people will take him at his word, whatever his intentions may be."

"To whose interests will Blaine's withdrawal from the presidency result?"

"I can not answer that, but if I were a candidate for the presidency I know I should begin to notice that little cloud in the sky not larger than a man's hand which means Phil Sheridan. The people of our state would like to see General Harrison nominated and there is no telling what the developments may be."

Horace Hanna will leave for California on Thursday next to locate.
